

Judge Grubbs makes way down aisle

Here comes the Judge!

On Feb. 4, the Honorable Adele Grubbs, Superior Judge of Cobb County, married Tony Platt, an aerospace engineer from California, in a private ceremony at the Marietta County Club.

Judge George Kreeger and the Rev. Mark Barbour of First Baptist Church of Marietta both officiated.

Following the wedding, members of the community joined the couple at the Club for a reception in celebration of the union.

Lucky for us, the newlyweds have chosen to settle in Marietta.

Among those in attendance were: Robin Adams, Chuck Boring, Kathy Brown, Kim Carroll, Chuck Clay, John Clotzler, Melissa Cox, Joy and Paul Crowder, Andrew Egen, Beverly Collins and Pat Head, Helen and Justice Harris Hines, Johnny Isakson, Mary

Sally Litchfield

After love's first blush, Harriet and George "Colbone" Kneen of Marietta are still seeing fireworks. Congratulations to the happy couple who celebrated 60 years of marriage on Feb. 9.

and George Karras, Maddox Kliger, Matt McNally, Marcia and Rex Ruff, Joyce Shade, Natalie Smith, Carol and Kessel Stelling, Annabeth and Tommy Tidwell along with the Superior Court Judges of Cobb and the bride's Sunday School class from PBC.

Strong, compelling, intelligent, prolific, diverse... just a few adjectives used to describe the recipients of Atlanta Woman magazine's 25 Power Women To Watch Award. Jeri Barr, CEO of The Center for Family Resources, was recently recognized as one of Atlanta's top "movers and shakers."

The magazine defines these "power" women as those who stand out as inarguably influential within their spheres, as role models and mentors for other women. Women were honored in the areas of entrepreneurs, financial services, technology, real estate, arts and entertainment, nonprofit, law, sports, media, crusaders, hospitality and corporate.
